

Annual Bible Conference

March 18–23, 2001

Bob Jones University

T

The annual spring Bible Conference is an oasis in the Bob Jones University school year. The value of the week is not limited to those of us on campus, however. Numerous alumni, friends, and believers from around the country guard this week of spiritual refreshment on their calendars.

There are conferences being held for all kinds of good things, but this is one of the few Bible conferences left in America. The Word of God will be sweet to your taste.

Would you join us for a week of Bible exposition and Christian fellowship? Though spring is always a hectic time, the Bible Conference gives us an opportunity to step back from busyness to redirect our focus to God and His Word. I look forward to your coming and to the good spiritual "food" we will enjoy from the Lord's hand.

Sincerely,

Bob Jones III
President

Pastors and Christian Workers Luncheon

March 21—The University invites all full-time pastors, youth pastors, evangelists, missionaries, and their wives to be our guests at a luncheon Wednesday at noon in the Faculty Room of the Dining Common. Since space is limited, tickets are required and may be picked up at the Information Desk in the Administration Building from 8 a.m. on Monday to noon on Wednesday.

Parents Day

March 21—Wednesday is a day honoring parents of BJU and BJA students and is highlighted by parents' visits to their children's dormitory rooms. Campus Store discounts are available to all parents, and meals in the Dining Common are "on the house" for parents accompanied by their children who are dormitory students.

Estate Planning and Wills

March 21—Attorney Joe Helm will be teaching biblical principles of stewardship and practical methods of estate planning and charitable giving. This seminar will provide a wealth of spiritual and practical information for the individual Christian as well as for the pastor desiring to lead his congregation in the area of stewardship. This seminar will be held on Wednesday at 3 p.m. in Stratton Hall.

Mr. Helm will be available on Thursday and Friday to speak with interested visitors about charitable giving and estate planning. See the Information Desk for an appointment.

Campus Attractions

The following attractions are available at various times during Bible Conference week. See the individual entry or the schedule for specific times and take in as many as possible while you're here.

BJU Museum & Gallery

Visit a world-class art collection, open Tuesday through Sunday from 2–5 p.m. The Gallery provides a unique opportunity to observe art and culture beginning with Bible times and extending through the 13th-19th centuries. A stroll through the thirty galleries presents an accurate view of religious art and history with over 400 paintings of European sacred art by the Old Masters, rare Russian icons, the Bowen Bible Lands Museum, and much more. A modest admission fee is charged.

Mack Library

Open M, Tu, W, F from 3–5 p.m.; Thurs. 1:30–5 p.m.

- Jerusalem Chamber—a reproduction of the room in London's Westminster Abbey where parts of the King James Version of the Bible were translated. Serves as a display area for the University's collection of rare Bibles.
- Archives Room—a fascinating array of materials dealing with the history of Bob Jones University.
- Earle W. Sargent Boardroom—This elaborate room features hand-carved pilasters, Tiffany stained glass windows, and chandeliers from the Astor Hotel in New York.

A Sure Foundation

Your senses will be dazzled as you view this fast-moving, highly informative, 35-minute multimedia presentation of campus life at BJU. No tickets are necessary. Doors will open 15 minutes before starting time, and seating will be on a first-come, first-served basis with no standees. See schedule for times.
